New Business

Decision Re: 2003 summer AHRC meeting schedule

- Question: Whether Committee should skip one meeting next summer because of vacations, etc.
- Decision: In July of next year Committee can decide whether to take August off, based on where everyone's at in July

Committee News

- Esther is resigning, and sent an email informing Committee of this
- Chris Kita will not seek re-appointment when his term is up in November
- Christine Carney will put up a flyer on Town Day announcing the vacancy

Other

- MCAD – complaints now need to be filed within 300 days rather than the former 6 months

Events

September 11th memorial

- Memorial to be held by Town Hall. Volunteers needed to hand out candles. The widow of the Arlington man who died on 9/11 may attend. Scheduled to be present at the memorial are:

Kathleen Dias
 Phil Farrington
 Police Fire Honor Guard.
 Bagpipes (possibly)

Town Day

- Marlissa sent 26 letters to local restaurants. Jimmy's Mr. Sushi, and Tea Tray in the Sky responded
- To share the work everyone will call 2 restaurants; if it's close to the event, members should pick up certificates in person
- Marlissa will put up a flyer welcoming volunteers to help with the 10th anniversary celebration and any of the Committee's other events

Dialog

- On October 9th at 7:30, Diane Levin is scheduled for the next Dialog at the Robbins Library. Marlissa will create flyers re: the event for Town Day; flyers will be sent to the elementary schools

Committees

- Publicity & Rapid Response: Nothing to report
- Policies & Procedures: Nothing to report
- 10th Anniversary Committee
 - Will meet in early October after everyone has returned from vacations. The plan is to:
 - Talk about where Arlington has been
 - Talk about where Arlington is presently
 - Work with groups we've worked with already
- Samantha Power, author of The Quiet Americans, in which she talks about reactions to genocide after the holocaust, is scheduled to speak at the Kennedy School. She is a possible good fit for the 10th anniversary celebration
- The Committee may be considering an Arlington Human Rights Award. This could be tied in with a United Way award. We would need a grant writer (possibly Judy Bond).
- The UW "Unity Fund" award relates to community-based educational programs that promote tolerance and understanding. The Boston Foundation also has an award that may be an option.

End of meeting: 8:35 p.m.
